Forever in our Hearts

Winnie the Pooh once said, "How lucky I am to have something that makes saying goodbye so hard." Today we acknowledged and said farewell to three staff members departing Holy Angels. Mrs. Doyle, Mrs. Baki, and Mrs. Gonzalez contributed to our school in their time with us, far beyond what is expected of them. They were the epitome of service; humble, dedicated, seeking no recognition or reward. They simply in their own quiet ways went about the business of making a difference. As we say goodbye, we remind ourselves that farewells are not forever, nor are they the end. They are simply words to say that we will miss them dearly and that we will remember them fondly.

Anniversary Celebration

When Ms. Nardone started at this school, Ronald Reagan was President. Disney's Epcot Center had just opened, and Michael Jackson released his album, "Thriller." Scientists had invented the first artificial heart and The Weather Channel was just beginning on cable TV.

There are no words that best describe our love and gratitude for her 35 years of caring, love, and tenderness; for her patience, generosity, and boundless thoughtfulness. We celebrated this milestone on Wednesday when we acknowledge how she touched our lives in so many ways, as a teacher, mentor, and friend. Congratulations on 35 years of faithful service to Holy Angels!

Forever Friends

One of the things that Holy Angels does well is to say goodbye in style, and that's because we appreciate all of those people who walk through our doors and who make us better people with their presence. On behalf of the school, I would like to wish all those students who will not be returning next year a fond farewell. Know that you will be missed!

Have a blessed and safe summer!
